Woman killed, 4 injured, 50 structures damaged

Srinagar (UNI)

As multiple attacks on Indian territory by Pakistan Armed Forces during the last night were "effectively repulsed and a befitting reply was given," a woman was killed and four others injured in cross-border shelling in the Uri sector of Baramulla district.

Officials said last night Pakistan intensified artillery fire across the

Shelling along LoC

Line of Control (LoC) in Kashmir in which nearly 50 structures were damaged in Baramulla and Kupwara districts.

The intense cross border shelling erupted last evening moments after Pakistan escalated the skirmish by attacking Jammu with drones and missiles.

Officials said a 38-year-old woman identified as Nargis Bashir of Rajarwani Uri, was killed when the vehicle she was travelling in was hit by a shell fired from Pakistan.

The woman and some of her family members had boarded a vehicle to flee from the village after artillery shelling from Pakistan.

While Nargis was killed, her three relatives were also injured in the explosion.

The three were shifted to Baramulla hospital where condition of all of them is stated to be stable.

The entire Uri sector witnessed intense cross-border shelling overnight, with mortar and artillery shells landing deep inside civilian areas. The heavy exchange of fire continued unabated until morning, causing panic among residents.

Similar shelling was reported in north Kashmir's Kupwara district, where the intensity remained high. Pakistani shells landed in several villages, including Chowkibal, Panzgam, Soonthipora, Dolipora, Batpora, and Rawathpora, forcing residents to take shelter indoors.

Earlier on the intervening night of Thursday and Friday, Pakistani forces launched multiple attacks using drones and other munitions along the entire western border.

The Indian Army said Pak troops also resorted to numerous cease fire violations (CFVs) along the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir.

Hailing Operation Sindhoor as a "decisive step" that has restored the nation's dignity and boosted collective morale following the brutal massacre of Hindu tourists in Pahalgam, the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) on Friday lauded the Centre and the armed forces for their swift and strong response against Pakistan-sponsored terrorism.

In a statement issued by Sarsanghchalak Dr Mohan Bhagwat and Sarkaryavah Dattatreya Hosabale, the RSS said the action taken by the armed forces had served justice to the aggrieved families and the entire country. "This firm action against Pak-sponsored terrorists and their ecosystem has enhanced self-respect and morale of the entire nation," it said.

Expressing full support for the ongoing military operations, the RSS noted that striking terrorist infrastructure and support systems in Pakistan was both "necessary and inevitable" for India's security.
