MP eyes Rs 3800 crore investment in frozen potato products unit

Officials of McCain Foods meet Chief Minister Dr. Yadav

Bhopal: Madhya Pradesh is poised to significantly boost its industrial and employment landscape with a proposed Rs 3800 crore investment from McCain Foods for a frozen potato product manufacturing unit. Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav affirmed that 2025 is the year for rapidly realizing industrial development potential, with the state actively receiving investment proposals across various sectors. Ĥe assured investors of all necessary facilities, including land and policy support, for establishing industrial units.

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav held discussions on Thursday at Samatva Bhawan, the Chief

Minister's residence, with Mr. Pierre Dennet, Regional President of McCain Foods, and his Dennet informed the Chief Minister that McCain Foods has proposed a Rs 3800 crore investment in Madhya Pradesh.

This investment aims to provide farmers with a stable market, better prices, and advanced agricultural through contract farming. In the first phase, Rs 1800 crore will be invested, creating direct and indirect employment opportunities for 6300 individu-

McCain Foods, a global company founded in Canada, primarily manufactures frozen potato products such as French fries, aloo tikki, and various snack items. The company has played a significant role in India's food sector since 2007. Currently, McCain Foods operates a state-of-the-art production unit in Mehsana, Gujarat, where it procures potatoes directly from farmers to produce a range of food products. Also present during the discussion were Principal Secretary of Industrial Policy and Investment Promotion, Řaghavendra Kumar Singh, and Commissioner of Public Relations, Dr. Sudam

State on alert as reservoir levels rise

MP Water Resources Minister calls for flood preparedness

Bhopal: Water Resources Minister Tulsiram Silawat has directed officials to take all necessary precautionary measures to prevent floods across Madhya Pradesh. Chairing a review meeting at the State Flood Control Room at the Bodhi office on Thursday, the Minister emphasized continuous monitoring of water levels in dams and reservoirs and called for swift coordination with disaster management departments.

Silawat instructed that any reports of excessive rainfall or flood-like situations must be responded to with immediate action. The meeting was attended by Chief Engineer R.D. Ahirwar, Superintending Engineers, and flood control offi-

Officials reported that of the 286 major dams monitored through the Reservoir Level Monitoring System, 6 reservoirs currently hold over 90% capacity, 7 are 75–90%, 22 are are between between 50-75%, 43 between 25-50%, 52 between 10-25%, and 156 have less than 10% storage.

As of today, the average water storage in major reservoirs stands at 35.34%, a 10.25% increase from the same time last year, when it was 25.76%

This improvement is due to strong monsoon in 2025, with Madhya Pradesh receiving 230.8 mm of rainfall so far which is 48% above the state's average. The eastern region recorded 30% more rainfall than normal, while the western region received 65% more.

In contrast, on this date last ear, the state had received only 142 mm of rainfall, 9% below

The Minister termed the reservoir levels "satisfactory" but stressed the need for continued vigilance, especially in flood-prone areas, to ensure timely response and public

The incident stemmed from a dispute over money between dhaba owner Raja Chaukse and Batti's cousins, Aafat Batti and Naveen Batti, who worked at the dhaba. After Aafat and Naveen left their jobs, Raja Chaukse, Golu Malviya, and Ankit Kahar allegedly arrived at Batti's home, leading to an argument and subsequent assault on Rajkumar. When he raised an alarm, his brother Naveen and wife Janki Batti intervened and were also assaulted. The administration confirmed that Rajkumar Batti filed a report at Amarwada police station, which does not record any acts of inhuman treatment as alleged by

MP Forest Department Personnel to be honored for anti-poaching efforts

Bhopal: Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav has expressed his appreciation and congratulations to the Madhya Pradesh Forest Department for its wildlife conservation efforts and remarkable successes. Dr. Yadav announced that diligent officers and personnel of the Forest Department, who have demonstrated outstanding work and multifaceted efforts, will be re-worker positions.

A significant recent achievement highlights the State Tiger Force's (STF) joint efforts. The STF not only conducted a precise investigation against an international tiger poacher but also presented a robust case in court, leading to the conviction of the accused, Tashi Sherpa, who was sentenced to five years in prison.

Serious efforts to uphold Madhya Pradesh's identity

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav emphasized that Madhya Pradesh's identity is intrinsically linked to its dense, environmentally friendly forest areas and the diverse wildlife that symbolizes India's rich biodiversity. He lauded the Forest Department officials and staff for their serious and diligent work in conserving the state's forest and wildlife wealth. The State Tiger Force, acting on directives from the Indian government, has continuously strived to prevent wildlife trafficking and has successfully secured convictions against accused individuals.

Interpol Headquarters extends congratulations

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav also shared that Interpol Headquarters in Lyon, France, has sênt a congratulatory letter to Madhya Pradesh's State Tiger Force for the successful prosecution and conviction of international tiger poacher Tashi Sherpa. The STF's actions have exposed in-ter-state and international syn-dicates involved in wildlife traf-

These criminal gangs, whose members are involved in wildlife smuggling across India, Nepal, Bhutan, and China, have been under the vigilant and scientific investigation of the Tiger Force.
