

CM for building a self-reliant, developed India through Swadeshi

Bhopal: Madhya Pradesh Congress President Jeetu Patwari hoisted the national flag at the state party office, extending Independence Day greetings. In his address, Patwari emphasized that freedom is a journey of ideas, calling for unity, brotherhood, and constitutional protection. He honored the legacies of leaders from Mahatma Gandhi to Rahul Gandhi, highlighting the party's commitment to love and non-violence.

Jabalpur: Following tradition, Kangaroo Kids School in Wright Town celebrated Independence Day with great joy. Children, dressed in tricolor outfits, participated in art activities like making flags and putting handprints on a map of India. They learned about the importance of the day and sang the national anthem with staff, including Principal Sonia Kochhar.

Dr Yadav hoists the National Flag and takes the salute at Lal Parade Ground

Bhopal: Madhya Pradesh celebrated its 79th Independence Day with patriotic fervor and great enthusiasm. Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav led the state-level ceremony at Lal Parade Ground, where he hoisted the National Flag, inspected a grand parade, and took the salute. The event was marked by a three-round celebratory firing by the armed forces and patriotic tunes from the police band. For the first time, the Chief Minister's address was broadcast live to every district headquarters, reaching a wide audience across the state.

In his address, Dr. Yadav paid homage to the martyrs of the freedom struggle. He also spoke of India's growing strength, citing "Operation Sindo" as a clear example of the nation's and its armed forces' valor under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

A vision for a developed and self-reliant nation

The Chief Minister emphasized that a self-reliant and developed

India can only be achieved through a firm commitment to Swadeshi. "With dedication to Swadeshi, we will create a self-reliant and developed nation," he stated. "Our people simply need to recognize their own strength and capability. I am proud to say that Madhya Pradesh is becoming a medium to fulfil the collective resolve of millions of Indians for an 'Atmanirbhar' and 'Developed' Bharat."

Dr. Yadav also highlighted the state's economic progress, noting that the per capita income increased to ₹1.52 lakh in the 2024-25 fiscal year. He shared that the state's budget for the 2025-26 fiscal year aims for development and prosperity without imposing new taxes, with a goal of doubling the budget in the next four years. He proudly announced that Madhya Pradesh is the first state to implement its own Jan Vishwas Act, in line with the Central Government's 2023 legislation, to enhance both ease of living and ease of doing business.

Nayak, hoisted the national flag, while Chief Security Officer Mr Avinash Sharma was present as a special guest. The police contingent saluted the flag, followed by a collective rendering of the National Anthem and Vande Mataram. The event concluded with sweets and refreshments, attended by a large gathering of officials and staff.

Sironj: Jamiat Ulama-e-Hind Sironj organized a magnificent motorcycle rally on Independence Day, a long-standing tradition in the city. Led by Maulana Ghazi Wali Ahmed, the rally saw large participation from the Muslim community. Participants and volunteers were welcomed with flowers by local citizens and officials, promoting a message of unity and brotherhood.

BHEL Bhopal celebrated the 79th Independence Day with patriotic fervor. General Manager Deepak Kumar Upadhyay hoisted the flag, highlighting BHEL's significant role in India's economic growth. He announced that BHEL Bhopal achieved a record turnover of Rs 4,278 crore and a profit of ₹227 crore in the last fiscal year, reflecting the company's success in aligning with the nation's "Atmanirbhar Bharat" initiative.

CM Yadav celebrates Janmashtami at Historic Amka-Jhamka temple

Dhar: Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav joined the Janmashtami festivities at the ancient Amka-Jhamka Temple in Dhar district's Sardarpur tehsil. The temple, which is believed to have a connection to the Dwapara Yuga and the legend of Lord Krishna's abduction of Rukmini, was the site of a vibrant celebration.

The Chief Minister began his visit by paying respects at the historic site before performing a special puja at the Ambika Mata Temple, where he prayed for the prosperity and happiness of Madhya Pradesh. He also visited the Chamunda Mata Temple to offer his prayers.

CM participates in Matki Phoad tradition: During the event, the Chief Minister was honored by the public with a ceremonial mace, a traditional gift. He then participated in the festive Matki Phoad event, a symbolic breaking of a clay pot, and was also seen affectionately petting a calf, much to the delight of the crowd.

The temple grounds were filled with a vibrant cultural program that included a variety of captivating performances. The event was attended by a host of dignitaries, including the District-in-Charge Minister Kailash Vijayvargiya, Union Minister of State for Women and Child Development Savitri Thakur, and other senior officials and public representatives.

The celebrations were marked by a spirit of devotion and community as thousands gathered to celebrate the birth of Lord Krishna.

Lord Krishna adorned with diamond and navratna jewels in Panna

Panna: A dazzling sight captivated devotees at the Shri Jugal Kishore Temple in Panna today as the idols of Lord Krishna and Radha were adorned with priceless, centuries-old jewelry. As part of the state's "Krishna Parv," a celebration organized by the Madhya Pradesh Culture Department, the deities were decorated with magnificent diamond and Navratna-studded ornaments from a bygone royal era.

The special attire for the idols was brought in from Mathura and Vrindavan, with final preparations made in Panna. The sight of the deities, exquisitely dressed and decked in jewels, drew a massive crowd of devotees eager for a glimpse.

A tradition of grandeur: Preparations for the Janmashtami festival had been underway for two weeks, transforming the Jugal Kishore Temple into a spectacle of light and color. Throughout the day, a huge crowd of devotees flocked to the temple, and by nightfall for the "Prakartotsav" (manifestation) celebration, the temple was completely packed. The royal regalia included a diamond-crested feather for Lord Krishna's crown and a flute made of solid gold.

Places Associated with Shri Krishna's life being developed as Pilgrimage Destination: CM

Over 1,000 Kids Dressed as Bal-Gopal and Radha-Krishna; CM Residence Comes Alive with Krishna Consciousness

Bhopal: Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav said that the places associated with Lord Shri Krishna's life are venerable. The state government is developing all such locations and sites associated with Shri Krishna's eternal memories into pilgrimage destinations. CM Dr. Yadav added that, like the Ram Van Gaman Path, the government is working on the development of the Shri Krishna Path. This includes the Sandipani Ashram in Ujjain, Janapav in Dhar and Amjhera pilgrimage sites. All these places are as sacred as Golok.

CM Dr. Yadav said that Lord Shri Krishna enshrined democracy by killing the tyrant Kansa. Bal Gopal Krishna and Balaram had liking for butter. To prevent butter from Gokul reaching Mathura, Krishna formed a team with his companions and began breaking the butter pots—a symbolic rebellion against the oppressive forces. Through his pious acts, Yogeshwar Shri Krishna demonstrated the purposeful path of life to society. The Chief Minister was addressing the Shri Krishna Janmashtami, Haldhar Mahotsav and Leeladhar Prakartotsav celebrations held at the CM residence on Saturday. The festivities began with the ritual of Jalabhishek, worship and lamp-lighting of Bal Gopal Krishna in the presence of ISKCON priests chanting mantras. Devotees participating through ISKCON International were also given Krishna idols (Laddu Gopal), literature and prasad.

Janmashtami celebrated with religious fervor

Bhopal: The birth of Lord Krishna was celebrated at several places across the city on Saturday. In Bhopal, the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON) is one of the main hubs of festivities, where colourful array of cultural programmes were beautifully merged with spiritual undertones. The programmes started in the wee hours on Saturday at ISKCON temple, Raisen Road, with Mangal Aarti to wake up the Lord, followed by Shringar Darshan. There was Kirtan organised throughout the day, along with Prasad distribution.

The evening was a medley of Krishna Leela, followed by 'Gupt Vrindavan ka rahasya' – a dance drama presented by youth forum of the ISKCON. The evening was a mix of Krishna Leela, followed by 'Gupt Vrindavan ka rahasya' – a dance drama presented by youth forum of the ISKCON.
