The statement, widely shared on social media, prompted swift outrage from Congress ranks, with leaders accusing the BJP of fostering a culture of violence.

In a post on X, Partap Singh Bajwa, leader of the Opposition in the Punjab Assembly, demanded accountability, "BJP must answer: why is a party spokesperson openly threatening Rahul Gandhi saying he should be 'shot in the chest' and still walking free? Silence equals complicity. This is encouragement of violence," Bajwa said.

Venugopal warned that the remark threatened not only Gandhi's safety but also the democratic principles of free speech and security.

Sanjay Raut slams 'boycott hypocrisy' Shares video of 'handshake' with Pak cricket chief

Uddhav Thackeray-led Shiv Sena Rajya Sabha MP and chief party out against the Indian cricket team today for enacting a 'drama' to fool the Indian public that it had refused to accept the Asia Cup trophy from Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) chief and minister Mohsin Naqvi, after sharing a video showing Indian cricket captain Suryakumar Yadav greeting, posing for a picture and even shaking hands with Nagyi, before the Asia Cup match.

"I don't know about the BJP's fake patriots and devotees, but the actual patriots did not watch the match vesterday. You did not take the trophy from the PCB chief Naqvi, but I shared a video which shows the Indian captain shaking hands with them, having tea and clicking pictures. Do you think the public is a fool?" Sanjay Raut said, lashing out against the Indian cricket team's hypocrisy, at a press conference todav.

"If patriotism was truly in your blood, vou wouldn't have even stepped on the field with Pakistan. Top to bottom — pure theatre. Indian public being played," Sanjay Raut tweeted on X, calling the handshake controversy during the first India versus Pakistan game a "nationalist drama cooked up for TV cameras".

"At the start of the cricket series, 15 days ago, he (Indian cricket captain Suryakumar Yadav) shook hands and clicked photos with Pakistan's minister Mohsin Naqvi. But now they are showing the country a drama of patriotism. If nationalism truly flowed in their blood, they should not have stepped onto the field against Pakistan," Sanjay Raut tweeted on Raut called the cricket match between India and Pakistan "an insult to the Indian Army and the people who died during the Pahalgam terror attack". "Öur question is, why are you playing with Pakistan? You should not insult the soldiers who martyred and the people who died in Pahalgam. You did not take the trophy, did not shake hands with their captain, but then why did you play the match? If you played the match, then stop this drama," Sanjay Raut said.

"Appearances on the field are different and the appearance inside is very different. Who are you fooling? Have you taken inspiration from the Prime Minister to fool the country?
